

Permakai presents

Permaculture Design Certificate Course

On our organic farm in south west Auckland

Every month for 12 months

This PDC will change the way you see things and give you philosophical and practical tools to build a resilient future.

You will learn the “what”, the “why”, and importantly the “how” of Permaculture.

We adopt a hands-on approach so you gain the confidence to implement what you learn in practice.

Price: $1200, installment plans and group discounts available.
